Reviews

This pdf is indeed gripping and interesting. It is definitely simplistic but shocks within the 50 percent of your book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 48 pages. Original publisher: Washington : U. S. G. P. O. , 2010. LC Number: KF26 . F6 2009ze OCLC Number: (OCoLC)610579605 Subject: International finance. Excerpt: . . . 11 tion-wide reforms. Our desired reform agenda includes greater progress on combating corruption; strengthening financial management; improving transparency, accountability, and governance; increasing the capacity to innovate and demonstrate results; dedicating a greater share of resources to the poorest; and seeking better coordination and division of labor among institutions. Achieving these objectives may also require new resources. As this committee is aware, all of the MDBs are undergoing, or have just concluded, capital reviews as part of a broader strategic repositioning. At a time when resources are at a premium here at home, the United States is carefully reviewing all options. Additionally, to underscore our commitment to poverty reduction, the United States will want to show leadership in MDB discussions on concessional financing for the poorest. We are conducting a thorough review of how best to equip these institutions for today's and tomorrow's challenges, and look forward to working with this committee, as well as with our partners in the G - 20, to reach agreement on a set of core priorities, reforms, and resources. However, to be credible in these negotiations, we must fully honor our previous commitments, which currently surpass 1 billion. I hope this committee will support our requests to pay down our arrears. REFORMING THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL ARCHITECTURE Reforming the international financial architecture will be critical for advancing these priorities and the cause of multilateralism. An essential element will be to strengthen international institutions and enhance cooperation, while continuing to preserve the strong leadership role of the United States in international forums. As we continue to...
